

TCA's Liberty Application, in August 2015, no Longer Certified to Run on iOS 6 (07.25.2015)

In Bulletins 07.25.2015

Liberty has been tested and runs optimally in the environments listed below. Other versions of browsers or devices not listed may be compatible, but full quality and functionality cannot be guaranteed. Please note that, in August 2015, TCA's Liberty application will no longer be certified to run on iOS 6. Since Apple introduced iOS 8, the share of devices running version iOS 6 and earlier has dropped to 2%. According to the Apple website (<https://developer.apple.com/support/appstore/>) 79% of apple devices are using iOS 8, 19% are on iOS 7. Based on the low instance of iOS 6 devices in the marketplace, TCA has elected to stop testing using iOS 6.

Liberty has been tested and runs optimally in the environments listed below. Other versions of browsers or devices not listed may be compatible, but full quality and functionality cannot be guaranteed.

Desktop/Laptop

Liberty's desktop view runs optimally in these browser versions or higher:

- Internet Explorer 8.0 (all security patches strongly recommended)
- Mozilla Firefox 31
- Google Chrome 32
- Apple Safari 5.1

Tablets/Mobile Devices

Liberty runs optimally on these devices and operating systems versions or higher:

Document Viewers

Liberty presents forms, reports and statements in PDF. Platforms that do not natively support this format will need a separate PDF viewer. Liberty works optimally with these PDF viewer versions or higher:

- Adobe Reader X (version 10.0)
- Mac OS X 10.6 built-in PDF viewer (Preview)
- iOS 7 built-in PDF viewer
- Android 4.1 built-in PDF viewer
